2. (2:2) Israel was instructed not to form alliances with other nations or worship the gods of those nations, but they repeatedly disobeyed the LORD God (Ex. 23:32-33; 34:12-17; Deut. 7:2-4,16; Jer. 7:23-28).

3. (2:12) The remaining verses of chapter 2 summarize the Book of Judges. Israel forsook the LORD God by serving the pagan gods of the nations around them, the anger of the LORD was kindled, Israel was conquered by their enemies, the LORD heard their cries, and He sent a judge to deliver them.

4. (2:16) Following the death of Joshua, Israel was ruled by judges who served as military and civil leaders. These Spirit-filled individuals delivered the nation from their enemies and continued to lead the people in times of peace. This form of leadership continued until Israel demanded a king to rule over them (I Sam. 8:1-22).
